Facial Masks

Fabric facial-mask treatments are saturated with high percentages of active ingredients to supercharge skin in a matter of minutes. We go undercover in hopes of unveiling smoother, firmer, more youthful faces in just 30.

1 SK-II FACIAL TREATMENT MASK, $90 PER BOX OF SIX.

"To the touch, this unscented gel-soaked mask feels like wet papier-mâché, but on the face, it's cooling and soothing. Afterward my skin, which tends toward dryness, felt softer, smoother and discernably plumped up."

— Glida Swartz, senior editor, Health

2 L'ORÉAL PARIS REVITALIFT INTENSIVE LIFT MASK, $28.99 PER BOX OF THREE.

"The whole fabric mask is rather gooey, but it helps it adhere easily to skin. It has a fresh scent and made my face tingle pleasantly about five minutes into the 30-minute process. Afterward, my skin felt softer, fresher and, yes, a bit firmer."

— Teresa Soosa, editorial assistant

3 KARINE JONCAS ORACLE DERMA-LIFT FACIAL MASK, $27.50 PER BOX OF THREE.

"This two-piece facial mask made me look a bit like Hannibal Lecter, but the deliciously cool gel treatment helped me forget about that quickly. My skin felt clean, soft and moist afterward, and the feeling lasted all day."

— Tina Aronoff Mline, managing editor

4 ELIZABETH ARDEN CERAMIDE PLUMP PERFECT FIRING FACIAL MASK, $65 PER BOX OF FOUR.

"The mask — a thin moist cloth you place over your face — is easy to apply and soothing to wear. Post treatment, my skin, which has been dehydrated of late, definitely felt softer, more supple and much fuller."

— Kathryn Dorrell, section editor, Family Life
